Stengthening youth ministry in parishes, groups, religious orders and schools

A second general assembly focusing on pastoral work with adolescents and young people

Following the first general assembly that took place in April 2006, the Diocesan Youth Commission (KDŽ) is organizing a second one on Saturday 26 January 2008 from 8.45am till 1pm. The venue shall be the Carmelite Family Centre, Fleur De Lys.

This assembly which shall see the participation of various people working with adolescents and youth shall focus on the environments in which pastoral work is taking place, as are parishes, groups and movements, religious orders and secondary and post-secondary schools.

A number of people have been invited to deliver presentations on the above environments which are meant to challenge those present to reflect and assess the effectiveness of pastoral work in these places. The idea of outreach will also be presented to stress the fact that there is the need for pastoral work to go beyond the environments mentioned above.
