ARCHBISHOP'S CELEBRATION WITH YOUNG VOLUNTEERS

Young people engaged in voluntary work and their friends are being invited for a celebration of friendship and faith with Archbishop Mgr. Paul Cremona O.P. on Wednesday, 29 April 2009, at 7.30pm, at the Church of The Mother of Good Counsel, Paceville. During this event the Archbishop gives young people his mandate for the voluntary work they will be doing during summer while also recalling the work which these volunteers do during the year.

This is the third consecutive year this meeting is being held before the summer months. It brings together young people who joined organisations working in Malta and abroad for a fellowship experience. This year's celebration forms part of the Church's journey with young people on the theme chosen by Pope Benedict XVI for 2009: "Our hope is in the living God", from St. Paul's letter to Timothy.

The event is co-ordinated by the Diocesan Youth Commission (KDŻ) and commissioned to the young people involved in the group LIFT. Young people wishing to take part are invited to register themselves through an email to the following address: info@kdz.org.mt. One can also phone on number 21484506.
